But they've not forgotten her betrayal. When Axel finds her, he's determined to bring her back. When she left, she'd been their queen, the one to bind them together. Now, she is going to be torn apart, broken, and possibly killed.

One look in Draven's eyes and she knows her future is no longer certain. She was born in Stonewall and will die there, at his hands. Before he strikes the killing blow, will she be able to convince him she didn't want to leave?

Draven's determined to rid his mind of this woman. She betrayed him, and the only way to deal with a traitor is to make an example of them. He will break her and make her regret every single minute she ran from him.

No one runs from him.

He owns her, and now it's time for her to pay, once and for all.
